Privacy Notice

Hook Norton Low Carbon Limited (HNLC) needs to record certain information relating to its members in order to carry out its day to day operations, to meet its objectives and to comply with legal obligations. We are committed to processing data in accordance with our responsibilities under the 2016 General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). To that end, we will treat information relating to all members and other interested parties with the utmost care and confidentiality. With this policy, we ensure that we gather, store and handle data fairly and transparently and with respect towards individual rights.

Under the conditions of the GDPR, individuals are protected from the indiscriminate collection of personal data as well as its storage and distribution. HNLC fully complies with the principles of the GDPR in the following ways:

- Lawfulness, Fairness and Transparency

Personal data will be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner by HNLC. Upon request from a Data Subject, HNLC will let the Data Subject know what data relating to him or her is being kept by them.

- Purpose Limitation

Personal data will only be collected by HNLC for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes, and will not be disclosed in any matter which conflicts with that purpose.

- Data Minimisation

Personal data collected by HNLC will be restricted to that which is adequate, and as relevant as reasonably possible to the purpose, and not excessive.

- Accuracy

Personal data kept by HNLC will be as accurate, and up-to-date as reasonably possible.

- Storage Limitations

Personal data will not be retained by HNLC any longer than is necessary for the original purpose for which it was given, nor used for any further future undisclosed purpose, nor without the expressed permission of the person to whom that data relates.

- Integrity and Confidentiality

Personal data will be kept as securely as possible by HNLC so as to prevent unlawful access, accidental loss, disclosure, unauthorised access or alteration to the data which is kept.
